DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 72, 74, 76-87, and 89-98 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach, nor fairly suggest, a method of dispensing reagents onto a slide substantially as claimed in the instant claims. A method of dispensing reagents onto a slide, the method comprising the steps of: providing at least one reagent container; providing at least one slide on a slide support; automatically identifying the reagent container using a computer, the step of automatically identifying being based on information associated with the reagent container; automatically determining whether the reagent in the reagent container should be dispensed onto the slide; moving the reagent container and the slide support relative to one another to position the reagent container over the slide; and dispensing the reagent in the reagent container onto the slide based on the determination of whether the reagent in the reagent container should be dispensed onto the slide.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
